WILDLIFE. Suwannee River. Your way of LIFE.

Your support is crucial to preserve the Refuges and protect wildlife for us and future generations.

Friends of the Lower Suwannee & Cedar Keys NWRs is a voice for the wild animals. It is a voice for all nature lovers, hunters, fishermen, birders, kayakers, hikers, clambers, and oystermen whose livelihood and way of life depend on the animals and the river.

To support the refuge, join us at Friends of Refuges.org. Your membership gifts may be tax-deductible. Support from caring people like you lets us champion our wildlife and wilderness.

1. Fishbone is a scenic stop on any driving tour and an excellent bird watching area. The shallow boat ramp is an easy launch for paddlers. Use the QR code for a paddle description and map.

2. Hike Shired Island beach. See shorebirds, crabs, mudflats and coastal hammocks or do a paddling tour using this QR code.

3. Drive, bike, or walk the unpaved 9-mile Dixie Mainline. While there, hike the 1.3 mile Tall Pine Trail.

4. Visit the fishing pier at the end of Salt Creek Road (accessible) and walk the 1/3 mile Loop Trail for beautiful vistas.

5. Paddle the Demory, Lock and Shingle Creek Loop. Small motor boats can also make the journey.

6. Bike or walk former logging roads, most loop back to CR 349. You may walk or bike around the yellow Refuge gates.
