

Refuge Update 2020

Staff:

- Dusty and Kathy Dusterwinkle
- Buzz and Donna Coller
- Trey Holland
- Ron Black
- Daniel Barrand
- Jason Coates
- Vic Doig
- Larry Woodward

Yesterday, ~ 1030; Friday 28 February 2020

First sighting of a pair of Swallowtail Kites!

New Staff:

George Pelt – Heavy Equipment

Sterling Valentine – Federal
Wildlife Officer

Welcome to Dan Frisk

Snake Handler Extraordinaire

Project Leader of the North Florida NWR Complex

Cedar Keys Light Station Renovation

Courtesy of UF-NCBS

New (replica)
Fresnel Lens and Mechanism

Fire Management / Wildlife Habitat Improvement

Biological Surveys (Shorebirds / Rookery)

Forestry and Habitat Management

Innovation / Working Smarter - Safer

Law Enforcement – Resource Protection

Providing Recreational Opportunities

Archaeological Research and Protection

Youth Conservation Corps

Shell Mound Trail

Ron Black

NWR Ranger at the Shellmound Unit

Thinking Out Of The Box For Wildlife

Embracing the Challenge

Historical Preservation

Partnerships in Conservation

Partnerships in Resource Protection

Volunteers / Friends

Brazilian Pepper Busters

Front Desk Volunteers

River and Coastal Cleanup

Camper Volunteers:

- Kathy and Dusty
- Donna and Buzz

Peg Hall – website/newletter

Debbie Jordan – Suwannee the Kite

Debbie Meeks – Trails

And so many others ...

By Keeping The Nature Coast Wild, Our Future is Bright!

The Best Office Ever

